Welcome to the July & August issue of The Village Voice

June was a busy month in Chilmark with further celebrations of the Queen's 90th Birthday, this time at disaster relief charity Team Rubicon's HQ at former RAF Chilmark. Trainee volunteers enjoyed an indoor street party as part of an intense training weekend. See page 15, with drinks invitation for all villagers. Meanwhile pupils at Chilmark and Fonthill Bishop School were treated to a surprise pop-up tea party to celebrate the Queen's birthday, see page 8.

Less than a week later, Team Rubicon was at the fore of village life kindly providing a host of experts to put up tents for Chilmark Church Fete in the grounds of the Old Rectory. Despite gloomy predictions, the Fete was blessed with a dry day and a terrific turnout of visitors. Plenty of fun was had by all. Many congratulations to the School for organising the fantastic maypole dancing display by the children, report and pictures on page 4-5.

Five days on, and it was EU Referendum Day with the Reading Room experiencing its heaviest Polling Day footfall for many years. Villagers appreciated some much needed light relief the following evening, courtesy of stand-up comic Dominic Holland.

Looking ahead, Opera at Chilmark returns to Cleaves Farm over the August Bank Holiday weekend with a premier of Louis Mander's chamber opera Beowulf, page 6. Then, to round off a great summer Chilmark Village Show will take place on the historic Fairmead venue (opposite the Black Dog) on Saturday 3rd September, page 6. Don't forget Show Entries night on Thursday 1st September!

Just a reminder that this is a joint July-August issue. Deadline for the September issue will be 20th August.

We wish you every happiness for the summer holidays.

Chilmark Church Fete

While the sun didn't quite shine the day stayed warm and dry for the Chilmark Church Fete on Saturday 18 June. The school's new Head teacher Adam Smith kindly opened the Fete and over 200 people enjoyed a very happy day.

Thank you to so many people – Neil and Susie Sutton for so generously allowing us to use the Old Rectory gardens, everyone who came to help set up and take down tents, especially the amazing team from Team Rubicon (a disaster relief team now based at RAF Chilmark who can put up tents in a flash!) and all those at Chilmark and Fonthill Bishop School. Particular highlights were the enthusiastic maypole dancing display by the children, delicious Pimms from the Friends and a stoic performance in the stocks from Head teacher Adam Smith and outgoing Chair of Governors, Nigel Anstey. We would also like to thank EHD for their generous support and Charlie Graham and all at Rural View for so many excellent signs. Thank you to all the local businesses that gave such generous raffle prizes.

The Tea team were magnificent – they said they have never been so busy! Sophie Eden entertained everyone beautifully on the keyboard and Julie O'Devlin together with Peter, the Old Rectory gardener, ran a truly magnificent Plant Stall. A huge thank you to all the wonderful villagers who ran stalls and games, donated raffle prizes, bottles and books, baked cakes, put up bunting and were so generous in every way. Thank you also to our wonderful vicar Jane Tailby who very kindly allowed us to fill her car with balloons on the day so helping us to raise even more money! Money is still coming in but we have certainly raised over £2000 for St Margaret's Church, Chilmark. Many thanks to everyone again

Felicity & Neil Pattenden, Susie & Neil Sutton, Bev Small

Fete Thank yous

From Sally Butcher:

Due to the great generosity of very many people, we were once again able to offer a sumptuous variety of good things to eat for tea at the church fete. I would like to offer huge thanks to all the cake makers who provided such a marvellous feast and to all the helpers on the day - Jenny Gavin, Margaret Wood, Wendy Allen, Lisbeth Diaper, Kath Acreman and Pauline Aaron - who made it all happen. It was wonderful teamwork. Thank you all.

Tea and cake anyone?

From Stephanie Lucas and Jenni Eke:

A big thank you to all the bakers and buyers who supported the cake stall that helped to make the fete a success.

From Janey Middleton, Church Warden:

On behalf of the Parochial Church Council I would like to thank all those who made such wonderful contributions to the Fete, and in particular Felicity, Bev, Susie and the two Neils who master-minded it all so brilliantly. It was a lovely afternoon, enjoyed by so many, and the financial result was amazing. To date well over £ 2,000 - how good is that?!

On the subject of money, a really big thank you to John and Chrissie Eden for counting and banking it all, a brilliant job very well done.

The school maypole dance

Stand-up comedian Dominic Holland brought lots of laughter to the Reading Room when he performed there in June, courtesy of Rural Arts Wiltshire. One of the country's most respected stand-up comics, he was particularly amusing about the Reading Room's state-of-the-art Green Room facilities, ie the garden shed. Thank you to everyone who came along and enjoyed such an entertaining evening.

The next event in the Reading Room will be a visit by the Channel Islands' sea shanty singers, Jenkins' Ear, on Saturday 17th September. Tickets will go on sale early in September.

Then on Saturday 1st October we look forward to a 'highly' interactive talk by costume historian Ros Liddington. Aimed at all ages (and sexes!) the title of the talk will be: 'What it's taken to get us dressed over 500 years!'

The Village Voice

Chilmark Village Show – Saturday 3rd September, 12 noon to 5pm. The preparations for the Village Show are well in hand, but we would welcome everyone's support please to ensure it's the best ever, particularly with the move to the new venue (opposite The Black Dog). You will have received the Show Programme, including details of all the classes, with this issue of The Village Voice. Do put Entries Night in your calendar so you remember to bring your entries along to the Reading Room on Thursday 1st September, 7-8.30pm.

This year's theme is the Olympics or, rather "Chilympics", hereabouts. We will be staging timeless classics such as welly-wanging, carrot relays, tug o' war, potato-put and egg-catching. Please let me know if you can raise a small team of family or friends. Individual entries on the day will be welcome too, of course.

We would welcome offers of prizes and donations for the following please:

Bottles for the bottle stall Tim & Patsy Barter
01722 716187 (see Drop-off list below)

Prizes for the raffle Ian Dennis - 01722 717471

Books for the book stall Yvonne Stocker
01722 716299

There will be a BBQ from lunchtime until 5pm. Please contact Mike Scott (01722 716971) or Rob Snook (01722 717868) if you are able to help. We have a number of offers from excellent bakers to create cakes and teatime treats for the Tea Tent and the Cake & Produce stall; but we could always use more! If you can bake anything, or offer up any wonderful produce from your garden, then please let David Blake know what you will bring. The pub will be open as normal for a Saturday.

Finally, we need more volunteers please to help set up and take down the Show, especially on Friday 2nd September, both during the day or in the evening if you can get to the field after work. Then, on Saturday morning we will have to put the finishing touches to the Show. We will be taking it all down again on Sunday. We would be most grateful if you can offer a few hours help.

The next Village Show meeting is on Wednesday 10th August, at 7.15pm, in the Black Dog – please come along with your offers of help, prizes, cakes, etc or just to hear more about what we are planning.

Opera at Chilmark - Sunday 28th and Bank Holiday
Monday 29th August at 5pm

BEOWULF, by Louis Mander
Cleeves Farm, Chilmark
(by kind permission of Henry and Elizabeth Pelham)

Opera at Chilmark's thirteenth production will be the first performance of a chamber opera, Beowulf, by the young composer Louis Mander. Three years ago the company gave the first performance of Louis' ballad opera Wild Edric and this was very well received – the reviewer in the Salisbury Journal described it as 'a wonderful way to spend an afternoon'.

Louis Mander

As a consequence, when Louis was commissioned by Cantata Dramatica, an organisation which promotes new music, to write an opera on the story of Beowulf he asked Opera at Chilmark to give its first performance.

As always there will be young professional soloists, an orchestra and the Chilmark chorus, and there will also be dancers portraying some of the action. And as always there will be a long interval for picnicking.

Church Cleaning 2016

I have recently taken over the church cleaning rota from Stephanie Lucas. I have rung everyone on the list and am waiting for some members to get back to me. There are some changes to the rota but I will keep you personally informed and publish a new list in September. You are most valued and we appreciate all you do. If there is anyone else who could help us we would be most grateful. Any queries, help or suggestions please ring me on 01722 716571.

Many thanks, Chrissie Eden.

Chilmark Cricket Club

Chilmark Cricket Club won six in a row during May and June; five of them are here.

Vs Chalke Valley, 22nd May - Ricky Corbin (21) and extras (34!) helped Chilmark to what wouldn't have been enough, but for Reg Allen (5-24).

Chilmark CC 138-9 defeated
Chalke Valley CC 100 all out.

Vs Sports Shed, 27th May (T20). Paul Butler (2-14) and Angus Steele (2-27) did the damage, before Marin Chalavatzis (46) and Chaz Sheppard (39) guided Chilmark to the win.

Sports Shed CC 133-7 defeated by Chilmark CC 136-3.

Vs Old Bedfordians, 29th May. Ollie Clayton (90) was poetry in whites as Chilmark hit their highest score of the season. Defending it was made easier by Brand King (3-16).

Chilmark 196-5 defeated Old Bedfordians 165-8.

Vs Fonthill, 5th June. A rare win over local rivals. With the ball it was Ben Eastmond (3-33) and an unlucky Ricky Corbin (1-29). With the bat Brand King (100 not out) and Ben Fowles (61 not out) hugged the glory.

Fonthill 183-9 defeated by Chilmark 184-0.

Vs Iwerne Minster, 10th June (T20). Paul Butler (2-21) and Darren Lee (2-22) bowled best, while Ollie Clayton (38 not out) wielded the willow.

Iwerne Minster 119-8 defeated by Chilmark 121-4.

Vs Wiltshire Queries, 12th June. A loss? Ollie Clayton (65) and Ben Fowles (42) batted well, but even Fowles' (1-19) complicated 'spin' couldn't do enough damage.

Chilmark 180-9 defeated by Wiltshire Queries 182-2.

Isle of Wight Tour

Chilmark Cricket Club embarked on their second ever overseas tour from 17-19th of June, playing three teams on the Isle of Wight in between visits to local restaurants and the occasional licensed premises. Fifteen players enjoyed a successful weekend where the team went unbeaten and no-one was arrested.

Vs Newclose, 17th June. A T20 game reduced to 16 overs a side after early rain. Newclose sunk to 39-5 as Paul Butler (2-25) and Darren Lee (3-12) ran through the top order; however late hitting saw them post a total of 107.

Brand King (39) kick started Chilmark's chase, before DJ Gent (24 not out) and Ricky Corbin (28 not out) found runs late. In an exciting finish the pair scrambled a single off the last ball to tie the game. Newclose 107-7 tied with Chilmark 107-4.

Vs Porchfield, 18th June. Despite an early night then up for callisthenics on the beach, Chilmark were strangely muted as they faced Porchfield's bowlers. Ben Eastmond (25), Reg Allen (18) and Paul Butler (19 not out) pushed the score to 159.

Porchfield were cruising at 72-2, before a stellar nine over spell by Pete Stevens (4-34) turned the game. Good catches by Reg Allen and Darren Lee secured vital wickets as Chilmark recorded an excellent win. Chilmark 159 all out defeated Porchfield 114 all out.

Vs Ventnor, 19th June. Hearing that Chilmark were undefeated Ventnor sent out their big guns for Sunday's clash. Three overseas players topped their order; one of them scoring a 49 ball century before retiring. After 24 overs they were 229 runs without loss. Pete Corbin (5 overs 0-31) and Ben Eastmond (6 overs 0-40) bowled well amidst the carnage.

Mercifully for Ventnor the weather intervened to save them from Chilmark's fightback. Match abandoned due to rain.

Chilmark and Fonthill Bishop School

Bike-ability

The cycling proficiency test is now called bike-ability but the fun of bringing your bike to school has not changed. Our students were busy on their bikes, learning how to ride on the roads, the safe way to pass parked cars and then at the end a long ride out past the Black Dog, in the pouring rain!

The Church Fete

The School Council was asked to run a stall at the Fete as were the Friends; we were also asked to demonstrate maypole dancing. This was all just after the weeks of testing that happen at the close of the school year; I am glad to say we responded to the challenge in true Chilmark style.

The Friends ran the Pimms stall with a professional air of confidence; the School Council ran the stocks, with a dedication to corporal punishment... Mr Smith and Mr Anstey did not know what they had volunteered for!

The maypole dancing was very entertaining and, despite only having time to practise once, we were all very proud of the children.

The Queen's Birthday

The children were not aware of our plans to hold a surprise pop-up tea party to celebrate the Queen's 90th Birthday. With the help of the parents we took great pleasure in decorating the hall with bunting and laying out mountains of cake, as well as fizzy pop served in teapots - as most children don't drink tea. It was a lovely way to celebrate the end of the week and yes we did sing happy birthday and yes the children clapped all of the way to 90!! Children, teachers and parents enjoyed a wonderful time and the hope is this is a happy memory that will be long remembered!

Mr Smith on the receiving end!

Clergy Notes for July

I begin this month's notes with a HUGE thank you to all those who made our church fete such a success. So much hard work, time and energy went into the afternoon, which meant that everyone had such a good time. It felt like a real village effort and, the night before, someone said that they thought everyone in Chilmark was baking cakes that evening! Thank you to the Suttons for allowing us to use their lovely garden and to the amazing organising committee. By the time you read this, we will have enjoyed the school fair as well, which I am sure will have been an equal success – Chilmark is good at these things!

Our church services in July will follow their usual pattern and at our Family Communion service on 17th July, we will have our annual collection which funds our support of Awoke, a young lad living in Ethiopia whom we support through the charity World Vision. We need to raise £270 for our year's support and if you would like to make a contribution, but won't be at the service, please contact Janey Middleton or myself. Our contribution makes a real difference to the life of Awoke and his community.

Please note that our area service on 31st July is at Baverstock Church at 10.00 a.m. All are welcome!

Services in August will be as follows:

7th August 11.15am Parish Communion

14th August 11.15am Matins

21st August 11.15am Family Communion. This will be my last service in Chilmark and refreshments will follow the service

28th August 11am Parish Communion at Dinton Church (No service at Chilmark)

6pm Festal Evensong at Teffont Evias Church

These will be my final services in the benefice to which every parish is invited to either or both services.

As this is a joint July/August edition, this will be the last time I will be writing Clergy Notes for Village Voice; I am at that strange stage of thinking "this is the last time I will..." I have so much valued my time in Chilmark and it has been a privilege to be your vicar for a while. I'd like to thank you all for your love and support and my particular thanks go to the PCC and most especially to two wonderful churchwardens – Janey and Stephanie. I will leave with many treasured memories and I will continue to pray for you, and I ask for your prayers as I move on to new challenges in my ministry in the Peterborough Diocese.

With every blessing, Rev. Jane

Statement from the Bishop of Salisbury

On 18 March I issued a statement advising you that a number of concerns had been formally expressed to me about Andrew and his ministry in the parish. As I emphasised at the time, these concerns were not a police matter but instead related to claims of conversations and use of language that were inappropriate, in the contexts in which they took place, for a clerk in Holy Orders.

The rules of the Church of England required that there be a formal process to resolve these claims. At the time, I told you that process was expected to take some time.

Those expressing the concerns acted in good faith and were right to bring them to my attention. The concerns have proved not to be as serious as they first appeared or as they might potentially have been. I have therefore decided not to impose any penalty on Andrew.

Andrew has, however, accepted that he made some poor decisions and said some things that, in the contexts in which they were said, fell short of the standards of professionalism he expects of himself as a clergyman.

In order to be able to come to that conclusion and to be fair – not least to Andrew – it was necessary to comply with procedures that have been agreed by the national Church and to investigate fully, including taking legal and other professional advice. That is why the process has taken 13 weeks to complete. I understand the impact of this and the shared sense of frustration but we have completed the process as quickly as possible.

I am sorry that you have been deprived of Andrew's ministry, something that Andrew himself has also felt. As I explained in my first statement, this was partly to ensure that the process could go forward without interference from further parochial issues and also to ensure that Andrew and his family were free from interference in their lives by expressions of curiosity or outside enquiry. The decision to suspend was an entirely neutral act which is not uncommon in such circumstances and into which nothing should be read.

For the sake of those who complained, it would not be helpful for me to give details of what was alleged but now their concerns have been investigated and I have found no need to impose any penalty on Andrew, I am pleased to announce that I have asked Andrew to resume his ministry among you.

Thank you for your prayers and support for Andrew and Donelle through this very difficult period. Thank you for your endurance in adversity and for your continuing to be the church in this place. I am particularly grateful to the Team Rector, ministry team and churchwardens. We will continue to pray for one another and especially for Andrew. I know that you will be both relieved and pleased that Andrew and Donelle have been restored among you.

Thank you Stephanie!

At the Annual Church Meeting in April, Stephanie Lucas stood down as church warden after many years of faithful service. Stephanie has been an extremely hard-working, efficient and organised warden and the church has benefitted greatly from all she has done. Her heart is very much for the church and her service has been exemplary. Her vicar is most particularly grateful for her support, energy and enthusiasm. We must also thank Dudley for his patient support. A true team indeed!

From Janey Middleton, Church Warden

St Margaret's Church and the parish owe a huge debt of gratitude to Stephanie for the tremendous service she has given as Churchwarden for so long. I think she became a Churchwarden in 1998, and her hard work and attention to detail made sure that the running of the Church was on very well oiled wheels, and information is preserved for all time in beautifully kept files – it's an awesome task even hoping to follow suit!

In our very warm thanks for all she has done I would like to include Dudley, who has been so supportive and has done so much himself for our church.

The list is endless, of all that Stephanie did, and is still doing – without the burden of being a Churchwarden – and we all thank her for a marvellous job so very well done.

Churchyard Working Party

The next churchyard working party will be on Saturday 23rd July 10am-12 noon. Refreshments will be provided; please bring tools etc. Do please join us - the more the merrier. Janey Middleton

Farewell to Jane

The Revd Jane Tailby's last service at Chilmark will be held on Sunday 21st August at 11.15am. We invite everyone to come and wish Jane well as she leaves us for pastures new, and to thank her for all that she has done for us and our parish. There are many whose lives she has touched in different ways.

We are starting a collection in order to give Jane a farewell gift. Please send a donation either to me, or John Eden, PCC Treasurer, at 14 Park Drive, Chilmark, SP3 5AW. Cheques payable to Chilmark PCC.

After the service there will be a chance to mingle and have a drink and some refreshments; it would be wonderful if you could bring a plate of something savoury to hand round. Thank you for all that; it would be lovely to give Jane a really happy send off.

Hindon Surgery News

Thank you for your support: It's always very pleasing to see that our monthly newsletter articles, spreading information about Hindon Surgery and the NHS in general, do produce results. The aim has always been to help all our patients get the best from their surgery.

Our recent article – jointly with Tisbury Surgery – about breast screening hopefully played a part in the increased uptake of mammography from 75% three years ago to over 80% this year - despite the unit being in Wilton. Next time they hope to be at the Tisbury Campus and it will be easier for everyone to have this test.

We have also publicised other national screening programmes like the bowel cancer screening kits sent to everyone aged between 60 and 74 years old every two years. National uptake is about 57%. In Hindon we write to everyone who hasn't returned a test, and the response rate is now over 80% with several early potential cancers picked up and cured. These are four times more common in those who needed a reminder from us.

This work has just won Hindon Surgery the 'Primary Care Contribution to Public Health' award at the annual Wiltshire Council Public Health Awards. We previously won one of these awards five ago for our work helping smokers to quit; in Wiltshire just below 20% of adults are current smokers but the rate for Hindon patients is just over 10%.

Like all local practices we want to help our patients to make the lifestyle changes and have check-ups, screening tests and vaccinations to help reduce the risk of becoming unwell. We are extending this work for our older patients with care planning and longer review appointments with our new practice nurse Bernadette Watson and Dr Craig-McFeely that includes home visiting to housebound patients and those who have just returned home from hospital.

We can only do this with your help and we thank you for this.

Dr Patrick Craig-McFeely

Tisbury Surgery CQC Inspection

The Care Quality Commission carried out a comprehensive inspection of the surgery in March, giving the practice an overall rating of GOOD. We were assessed on five key areas, receiving GOOD or OUTSTANDING ratings in all of them. The full report can be viewed on the CQC website: www.cqc.org.uk or via our website, see below.

We would like to thank everyone involved, including patients who completed the CQC cards or spoke to the inspectors during the day, staff who worked hard preparing for the visit and our Patient Participation Group.

The Village Voice

Staff 2016

We will be sorry to say goodbye to Dr Rachel Davison who is currently undertaking GP training at the surgery – she leaves in August. In her place for the coming year we will welcome Dr Clare Doherty, joining us to complete her GP training.

Our receptionists have been working harder than usual to cover a colleague's prolonged leave of absence on health grounds. Please bear with us while we try to offer the best service possible.

Stroke Association

More than 9.2 million people in the UK are registered as hypertensive and it is estimated up to another 6.8 million people could have undiagnosed high blood pressure. Identifying and treating high blood pressure is vital to preventing a stroke.

Please visit the stroke association website at www.stroke.org.uk/moments for a free blood pressure information pack.

Medication

Remember to order your medication in plenty of time before going on holiday, make sure you have sufficient supplies and allow time for travel vaccinations if they are necessary. Please only order and collect what you need. Wasted prescriptions cost Wiltshire £2.7 million each year. Once the medication is home it can't be reused and will have to be incinerated, even if it is unopened.

Asthma Clinics

Sister Liz Wiltshire – specialist in asthma and COPD – runs our Asthma Clinics. The next one is on 13th July 2016; please contact Reception for an appointment.

Carers Clinic

Carers see our practice nurse for a health check and can then have a chat with someone from Carers Support Wiltshire. To find out if you qualify as a carer do ask Sharon at the surgery for details. The next Clinic is on 27th July.

Smoke Stop Clinic

Our dedicated smoke stop nurse, Sister Antoinette Wachter, is available on Mondays and Thursdays to give valuable support as patients try to stop smoking.

Your Details

Please keep us up-to-date with your contact details including address, landline and mobile phone numbers and email address. It is vital that we hold accurate information.

And finally...

Thank you to all those who so kindly donate funds to the surgery's equipment fund. Our latest purchase is a new ECG machine for use by clinicians both in the surgery and at patients' homes.

Dr John Dalton, Dr Laurence Carter

Team Rubicon Open Evening & Drinks!

The disaster relief charity Team Rubicon is opening its doors to all local residents who would like to take a look around its HQ, at former RAF Chilmark, on Thursday 14th July from 5-8pm. This will be a great opportunity see the kit we use on deployments, talk to staff and enjoy some drinks and nibbles. It would be lovely to see you there, and if you could RSVP to roberts@teamrubiconuk.org it would be massively appreciated so we have a rough idea of numbers, as we wouldn't want to run out of refreshments!

Thank you to everyone in Chilmark for your kind support and we will look forward to welcoming you all to Team Rubicon soon.

Team Rubicon UK ready to deploy with newly-trained Volunteers

Eighteen new volunteers completed domestic deployment training at Team Rubicon HQ in Chilmark over the weekend of 11-12th June. The Volunteers came from a variety of backgrounds and included military veterans, firefighters, doctors and, as we call them, kick ass civilians. Throughout the weekend the volunteers learnt a number of crucial skills for operating effectively on deployments within the UK. A training weekend at Team Rubicon wouldn't be complete without a chance to get to know everyone. So, to celebrate Her Majesty the Queen's birthday in style, we had an indoor street party on the Saturday evening.
